FIP Literature Commission Report 2022

While the coronavirus pandemic continues to provide challenges around the world, 2022 has seen the return to in-person philatelic exhibitions. We all are excited to be back at in-person exhibitions after two years of uncertainty and disruption, though travel from some countries remains restricted.

We would like to thank the FIP Board for approving our revised SREV on 8 August 2022. The new regulations are up and running properly, in particular when it comes to digital media regulations.

Our delegate Kjell Age Johansen (Norway) reported the following errors in the revised SREV and Guidelines of Philatelic Literature Exhibits.

SREV Article 4.1 about FIP languages refers to Article 29.3 of the Statutes but the languages are mentioned in Statutes Article 29.1

Guidelines C. Digital media says: "...publications that comply with Article 3", it is corrected to Article 2 of SREV.

Commission Secretary

Mr. Andrew Leong is not able to serve as a secretary to the commission, as he lost his beloved wife, and he needs to settle personal things.

Bureau Members by Invitation

We have appointed the following bureau members by invitation.

Mr. Christian Mouat (Chile)

Mr. Norman Banfield (New Zealand)

Commission Next Meeting

Our next Commission meeting will be held in Essen, Germany during IBRA 2023 International Stamp Exhibition on 27 May 2023 from 2.30 pm to 4 pm. We are working on a seminar "The Judging Criteria for Literature Exhibits" for IBRA 2023 and will share the details with FIP Board soon for their consideration.

New Delegates

We have communicated with member federations to nominate their delegates to the commission and have been pleased to receive a positive response.
